Intern Investment Strategy for a three- to four-month period starting beginning of March 2012

Job Purpose/Role

The Investment Strategy Group of AIM Investment Management Life/Health is responsible for implementing the investment strategy in, and steering the investment result of, the portfolios of the German life and health insurance companies of Allianz Group. As such, we cooperate closely with our colleagues within the AIM network and of Allianz Group in developing the investment strategy and adapting it to the specific needs of the portfolios we manage.

As an intern, you will actively contribute to these tasks by assisting our investment managers both in their daily work as well as in project-work. You will have the opportunity to learn more about the working and decision-making processes of a real global player in the investment industry.

Key Responsibilities

Your tasks will include the following:

- Analyze global financial markets and macroeconomic developments
- Analyze specific questions relating to our portfolios
- Collect and research information and data from databases, investment banks, think-tanks,...
- Prepare data overviews and chart books
- Prepare documents and presentations for investment committee meetings

Key Requirements/Skills/Experience

You focus your studies on finance, macroeconomics or related subjects and you have a strong personal interest in financial markets. Ideally, you will be in the ultimate year of your bachelor studies or enrolled in a master programme. Moreover, you possess a sound working knowledge of MS Office (excel and powerpoint). If you are a team player, have a proactive learning style, and perform above-average in your studies, you are our ideal candidate. A good working knowledge of German and English language is a must.
